

BREAKFAST WITH PAPERS

Hosted by Tom Wright

TODAY'S PANEL – Sunday 10 March

Robyn Williams AM

Robyn is one of Australia's best-known and best loved broadcasters who has presented science programs on the ABC radio and television since 1972. He has made guest appearances in the Goodies, Monty Python's Flying Circus and Dr Who. The author of 16 books, he is the first journalist to be elected a fellow of the Australian Academy of Science.

Robyn is presented in partnership with WOMAdelaide's Planet Talks forum.

Diana Simmonds

Diana is a journalist, author, editor and has written for Fairfax, News Ltd, Kerry Packer and was the Mombasa Times yachting correspondent age 15. She is a politics and theatre junkie, has established a website:

www.stagenoise.com and is currently writing a play and a memoir. Diana loves Adelaide

Matt Smith

Matt is The Advertiser National Affairs Editor.

David Penberthy

David got his start in journalism editing the University of Adelaide student newspaper, On Dit. He secured a cadetship with The Advertiser soon after. He covered federal politics in Canberra, joined the Sydney's Daily Telegraph as state political offer, and was editor of the Daily Telegraph from 2005-2008. He is a columnist for News Corp Australia and a host of the FIVEaa breakfast show.

#AdiFest #AdiWW #ThePalaisAF

PRESENTING PARTNERS

The Advertiser

