

BREAKFAST WITH PAPERS

Hosted by Tom Wright

TODAY'S PANEL – Sunday 17 March

Arman Abrahamzadeh OAM

Arman became an anti-domestic violence campaigner after losing his mother to domestic violence in March 2010. Along with his sisters, Atena and Anita they founded Zahra Foundation Australia in 2015. The organisation provides financial literacy and economic empowerment for women fleeing abusive homes. He is an ambassador for Our Watch and White Ribbon Australia and a board member for the Australia Day Council SA. He is a councillor for the City of Adelaide.

Jay Weatherill

Jay is the SA Labor Party's longest continuous serving Minister of the Crown taking up office in 2002 with a range of portfolios including Treasury, State Development, Education and Environment. He was Premier of SA for 6 and a half years.. Prior to his political career he had a law firm specialising in employment law.

Liz Nowell

Liz is the CEO of ACE Open, SA's contemporary art space. Prior to this she worked as Executive Director, curator and lecturer for a range of organisations across Sydney, Adelaide and New York. In 2018 she was named by Indaily as one of 40 under 40 business leaders in SA.

Andrew Holman

Andrew Holman is a journalist of 42 years experience, first gaining his love of print while selling papers after school at the woolstores of Port Adelaide. Later progressing to part-time copy boy for the Sunday Mail, he gained a cadetship in country South Australia and has worked at the former afternoon daily, The News, The Advertiser and the Sunday Mail in many capacities from reporter, to sports editor and editor. Andrew has won many plaudits for his editorial direction, including News Ltd newspaper of the year while editing the Cairns Post in Queensland during cyclone Yasi and guiding The Mercury in Hobart to highly-commended during a period of political uncertainty in Tasmania and against the backdrop of devastating bushfires. A proud South Australian at heart, Andrew returned to Adelaide four years ago to take the helm of the Sunday Mail, a paper he calls the people's paper, a paper he says is at the very heart of the South Australian community.

#AdIFest #AdIWW #ThePalaisAF

PRESENTING PARTNERS

The Advertiser

